

Mõttesein

- Lots of results and outcomes
- New break time activities
- Game books
- Game areas in corridors
- Game tutors who were active
- Meeting in Estonia and in Finland
- The interest among the teachers is created
- Motivated Project team
- Good Project manager
- Pilot week of active break times
- Very useful tool „Board of thoughts“

- All the planning in the beginning of the year took too much time
- Break time games were not interesting for all the children
- Other teachers lack of interest
- Time planning was difficult for Project members as the Project activities were addition to everyday work
- The quality of the game areas
- Project team members did not give enough support to game tutors during the pilot week.
- Lack of awareness among teachers

- Train more game tutors
- More information passing to teachers
- Zones in school - > board game room, quiet room etc
- Lending out the tool box equipment - > support from the Project team members
- Theme breaktimes or game fairs
- Car free day
- Hiking day to include counting of steps
- Inviting experts to talk about healthy lifestyle, sports, food

Mis on hästi?

Mis võiks olla paremini?

Mida kõike saaks teha?

Mida Sina saad teha?
